I dreamed about killing you again last night And it felt alright to me Dying on the banks of Em - barcadero skies I sat and watched you bleed Buried you alive in a fireworks display Raining down on me Your cold, hot blood Ran a - way from me to the sea

I printed my name on the back of a leaf And I watched it float away The hope I had in a notebook full of white dry pages Was all I tried to save But the wind blew me back via Chicago In the middle of the night And all without a fight At the crush of veils and starlight

I know I'll make it back One of these days and turn on your TV
 To watch a man with a face like mine Being chased down a busy street
 When he gets caught I won't get up And I won't go to sleep I'm coming home, I'm coming home Via Chicago the cups are cracked and hooked Above the sink, they make me think Crumbling ladder tears don't fall They shine down your shoulders Crawling is screw faster lash I blow it with kisses

I rest my head on a pillowy star And a cracked door moon It says I haven't gone too Far
