

You Got Gold - John Prine (The Missing Years – 1991)

A A A A Is there

A A E E
 ever enough space between us To keep us both honest and true?

E E E A A
 Why is it so hard just to sit in the yard And stare at the sky so blue? I've got a new way of walking and a new way of talking Honey when I'm around you,

A A A D

D D A
 But it gives me the blues when I've got some good news And

E A A
 you're not there to bring it to.

A A A E E
 Life is a blessing, it's a delicatessen Of all the little favors you do. All wrapped up together no matter the weather, Baby you always come through. It's a measure of treasure that gives me the pleasure Of loving you the way I do

A A D

D D A
 And you know I would gladly say I need your love badly And

E A
 bring these little things to you. Cause you got

D	D	D	D	A	A	A	A
Gold		Gold	in - side	of	you			You got
D	D	D	D	A	A	A	A
Gold		Gold	in - side	of	you			Well I got
E	E	E	E	A	A	A	A
Some		Gold	in - side	me	too

(Solo over Chorus)

A Well I'm thinking I'm knowing that I gotta be going A You know I hate to say so long. E E
E It gives me an ocean of mixed up emotion I'll have to work it out in a song. A A Well I'm
A leaving a lot A for the little I got A But you know a lot a little will do D
D D And if you give me your love I'll let it shine up above A And E light my way back home to you. A Cause you got
